Things to do

Want to do something extraordinary for Valentine's Day? Then consider a romantic balloon ride. Balloon Aloft Australia has champagne flights from out of Camden from $210 to $285 per person. Call 1800 028 568 for bookings.

A great way to get to know your beloved better is by playing board game Nitty Gritty. There are over 1000 thought-provoking and risqué questions in five categories: Life, Skeletons in the Closet, Opinions, Love it/Hate it, and Dilemmas. Nitty Gritty (RRP, $49.95) is available from Target.

Valentine's Day at the Ulladulla Guest House is a champagne affair. Their romantic package includes two nights' accommodation in a luxury room, a bottle of Bollinger champagne on arrival, gourmet breakfast daily, a three-course dinner for two in Elizans French restaurant, plus a one-hour massage (for him) and a one-hour beauty treatment (for her). The package is valid between February 13 and 15 and is priced at $776 per couple. For full details or bookings go to www.guesthouse.com.au or call 1800 700 905.

Would you like to try a restaurant with a difference? Wombarra Surf Club is holding its inaugural Valentine's Day Dinner on the Beach. About 50 couples are expected to dine al fresco at tables especially set up on the sand (or inside the club if the weather is bad). The catered three-course meal is $30 per head - the event is BYO and begins at 7.30pm. For bookings call Kellie on 4268 3135.
